

Global Strategists to Major Institutional Investors, Family Offices and to Alternative Asset - Long-Only Fund Managers is seeking self-motivated team-players to join our firm. Previous private placement, investment industry or sales experience to sophisticated long-term clients is preferred.

MII Alternative Assets, LLC:

- Provides outstanding strategic capital formation services to the alternative asset and long-only investment sectors.
- Brings top quality fund managers and major institutional investors together, creating profitable, mutually beneficial long-term relationships.
- Manage proprietary Fund of Funds (currently in seed stage)

Careers available nationwide (no relocation necessary) with a growing global financial services firm, specializing in strategic capital formation services to the alternative asset and long-only investment sectors. Firm will also seed and manage proprietary fund of funds.

- MBA and/or CFA designation or candidacy a plus
- Current Rolodex of clients and strategic relationships preferable

Senior Partner, Partner and Vice President positions available researching, managing and expanding firm's extensive top-tier investors spanning four continents, advising current fund managers and developing relationships with new managers. Firm sponsors FINRA Series 7 and 63 licensing.

- Step into a position of responsibility in a fast-paced environment, joining 19 colleagues, headed by seven Partners with strong track records of capital raising success.
- With an expanding global client list and positive operating cash flow, we invite outstanding individuals to join us in our next growth phase.
- Exceptional long and short term compensation package, including firm's revenue participation.

Please send a detailed resume and cover letter substantiating qualifications to John M. Alexander at jma@mii-alternative-assets.net. All submissions will be held in strictest confidence. Candidates of interest will receive a prompt response.